Description

Discover the fascinating world of the railway at the Museum Night Halle/Leipzig! Look forward to an unforgettable experience with steam locomotive 52 8154, which will be in steam and take you on a nostalgic journey back in time.

Experience up close the magic of the historic vehicles that are on display for you. Marvel at the impressive technology of bygone times and immerse yourself in railway history. Experts are on hand to give you fascinating insights and interesting facts.

In between, enjoy a delicious snack from the grill and refreshing drinks. Soak up the cosy atmosphere and let yourself be infected by the enthusiasm of the other visitors.

Best of all: taking part in the Museum Night at the Railway Museum Leipzig is completely free of charge! Just drop by and enjoy an unforgettable evening full of railway magic.

Important note: if you are travelling by car, please use the parking spaces outside the Goldrutenweg so that it remains clear as an emergency access route. By tram take lines 1 or 2 to the “Kurt-Kresse-Straße” stop, or line 3 to “Kötzschauer Straße”. Then follow Kurt-Kresse-Straße and you will reach the depot (Bw) after a walk of approx. 5 min. Thank you for your understanding.
