Description

On this day, the association welcomes you to the Dresden railway museum for a children's festival with a children's programme, music, games and much more.

The collection of historic locomotives in the former Dresden-Altstadt locomotive depot, lovingly maintained by the enthusiasts' association, is open to visitors on several days a year.

At the museum by the Nossener Brücke, the vehicles are presented to guests in the Heizhaus 1 engine shed and on the turntable. Alongside a souvenir market, the supporting programme includes cab visits, where your questions about steam locomotives will be gladly answered. Food and drink are also provided: the association's members look forward to welcoming you to the Rast am Bahnsteig 3 bistro.
