Description

As is tradition, the railway museum is also taking part in the Dresden Museum Night. An attractive programme for the whole family awaits you from as early as 16:00.

The collection of historic locomotives in the former Dresden-Altstadt locomotive depot, lovingly maintained by an enthusiasts' association, is open to visitors on several days a year.

At the museum by the Nossener Brücke, the vehicles are presented to guests in the “Heizhaus 1” engine shed and on the turntable. Alongside a souvenir market, the supporting programme includes cab visits, where your questions about steam locomotives will be gladly answered. Food and drink are also provided: the association's members look forward to welcoming you to the “Rast am Bahnsteig 3” bistro.
