Description

Have you always wanted to find out how the “Großer Hecht” (“Big Pike”) got its name, or why the Tatra trams were once specially built for Dresden?

Then the best thing to do is to visit the Trammuseum Dresden at your leisure on one of its open days. The depot hall, the other exhibition rooms and the souvenir shop are open to you from 10:00 to 17:00.

During the guided tours you will learn many interesting and some surprising facts about the history of Dresden's trams.

Another service offered by Dresden's tram operator is the children's tram on Dresden's rail network. The children's tram takes its name from the well-known children's book “Das doppelte Lottchen” (Lottie and Lisa) by Erich Kästner, who was born in Dresden in 1899. Anyone who would like to find out more about Kästner on a city tour and visit the places of his childhood and youth on a walk through Dresden's Neustadt district should book a date for this fascinating tour.
